

Writing Nature's Wisdom

with Christina Baldwin and Ann Linnea

Friday, October 29 -
Sunday, October 31, 2010

Marsh House Retreat Center,
Whidbey Island, Washington

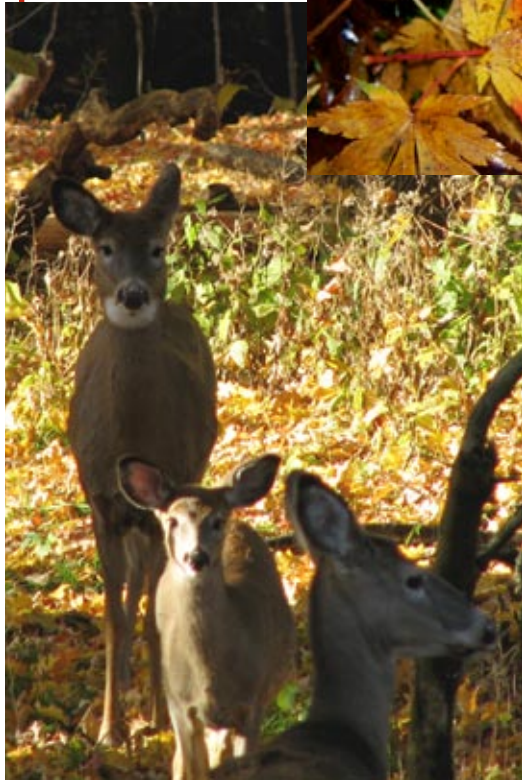

Celebrate this turning-of-the-season time by joining Christina and Ann for two days of creative writing in the beauty of Whidbey Island's Marsh House Retreat Center.

With Christina's passion for story and Ann's deep stewardship of wilderness, participants will experience the joyful connections between soul and the natural world at this time when the days are shortening and the earth is preparing for its winter rest. We will immerse ourselves in gentle exploration of the island's forests and coastline, reflective journal writing, and sharing councils of insight.

The seminar is based on Ann's new book, Keepers of the Trees, and Christina's books on journal writing and story; Life's Companion and Storycatcher. We will sit in PeerSpirit circle.

The workshop will begin with Friday evening supper and end after lunch on Sunday and is open to men and women with all levels of writing experience. Just bring a blank book and a willingness to begin!

DATES: Friday, October 29 -
Sunday, October 31

LOCATION: Marsh House
Retreat Center, Whidbey Island,
Washington

COST: $350 covers all food, lodging (shared accommodations) and materials

REGISTRATION is through the PeerSpirit office.

Life & Leadership through Circle, Quest & Story

cbaldwin@peerspirit.com • 360-331-3580 • PO Box 550 Langley, WA 98260 USA